Approximately 11:15 AM. The door was closed but I walked in behind a UPS delivery man. I pretended to be a pizza delivery guy since it was unlikely the defendants would open the door for a random person. I spoke with the manager, "Anthony" and I recognized him from before. I placed the pizza box on a desk, opened it, ate a slice of pizza inside, and handed him the papers and told him that Fast Advance Funding had been served. The man became agitated and insisted I had the wrong place but I knew he was lying due to previous experience at this office serving Fast Advance Funding. The man refused to give his last name.
